Chairman Rosenberg:

The Special Committee on Senate Address was established by the Senate on October 26, 2015 to pursue possible address under Article 6, Section 7 of the Pennsylvania Constitution related to Attorney General Kathleen Kane. The Senate President Pro Tempore Joe Scarnati, exercising his authority under Senate Rule 5(a)(2), duly appointed three Republican and three Democratic members to the Special Committee. Additionally, the President Pro Tempore is serving as an ex officio voting member.

As the designated Chairman of the Special Committee on Senate Address, I have been authorized to contact you for the purpose of requesting all filings and documentation submitted by Kathleen Kane to comply with Section 217 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Disciplinary Enforcement related to formerly admitted attorneys. It is my understanding that she must make the required submissions within ten (10) days of the effective date of the suspension which occurred on October 22, 2015.
